Cancellation by Us.

We may cancel this insurance by giving You fourteen (14) days' notice in writing to the address last notified to Us. We will only do this for a valid reason, examples of which are:

- Non-payment of Premium;
- A change in risk occurring which means that We can no longer provide You with insurance cover;
- Failure to comply with a provision of the Policy;
- Non-cooperation or failure to supply any information or documentation We request;
- Misrepresentation to Us during negotiations prior to the issue of the Policy;
- Making a fraudulent claim under the Policy or under some other contract of insurance that provides cover during the same period of time that the Policy covers You;
- Threatening or abusive behaviour or the use of threatening or abusive language.

If We cancel this insurance, provided You have not made a claim, You will be entitled to a refund of the Premium paid, subject to a deduction calculated for any time for which You have been covered.

If We pay any claim, whether by settlement, compromise or otherwise, then no refund of Premium will be allowed. Cancellation of the insurance by Us does not affect the treatment of any claim arising under the insurance in the period before cancellation.

If the Policy is cancelled or comes to an end for any reason all cover for Your Pet will stop on the date and time the cancellation becomes effective and no further claims will be paid.

If You pay by monthly instalments and if You do not pay an instalment on time then:

- if the out-standing instalment remains unpaid for at least fourteen (14) days We can refuse to pay a claim arising after the payment was due and;
- if the instalment remains unpaid for at least one month We can cancel the Policy.

We also reserve the right to have You pay the rest of the yearly Premium immediately. If Your instalments are frequently late or missed We also reserve the right to have You pay all Premiums due until the end of the current Period of Insurance. When We settle Your claim, We may deduct from the claim, any amount due to Us.

13. Paying Your Premium

If You pay Your Premium by Direct Debit instalment, when the Policy is due for renewal and We have agreed to renew the Policy, We will renew it for You automatically, to save You the worry of remembering to contact Us before the renewal date. We will write to You by email at least twenty-one (21) days before the Policy expires with full details of Your Premium and terms upon which renewal will be offered for a further Period of Insurance. If You do not want to renew the Policy just let Us know.

It is important that You check the terms of any renewal offer to satisfy yourself that the details are correct. In particular, check the sum insured amounts and Excess(es) applicable and ensure that the levels of cover are appropriate for You.

At each renewal, We ask You to notify Us of certain information. The information We require from You will be stated in Your renewal documentation. In addition to the information you provide yourself, we collect information, for example, from the Central Person Register (for the purpose of updating address information) as well as from other publicly available sources and registers. We often combine personal data from one service with information from other parts of the group – for example in order to provide you with the most relevant offers.

Whenever possible, we have tried to strike a balance between being fully transparent and detailed while still keeping information concise and understandable, when describing what information we collect, but some of our services and apps also use technologies such as cookies, pixel tags and device fingerprinting to handle sessions and perform web audience measurements, so we can improve our electronic services based on how you use them and in some cases integrate them with social media.

If we can correct information, we do this for free, except if it requires a disproportionate amount of effort. We strive to maintain our services in a way that protect information from accidental or harmful destruction. Therefore, when we delete your personal information from our services, we may not always be able to delete associated copies from our archive servers immediately, and the information may not be removed from our backup systems prior to expiration of the retention period.

You have the right to appeal to the Danish supervisory authority at any time ("Datatilsynet") (<https://www.datatilsynet.dk/borger/klage-til-datatilsynet/>)

Technical and organizational security measures

We work hard to protect the group and our customers from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure or destruction of personal data that we store. Therefore, we have implemented the following organizational and technical measures in general:

- We use strong encryption on our internet facing services.
- We apply antivirus / antimalware technologies to all IT systems that process personal data.
- We back up all IT systems that process personal data.
- We regularly review our procedures for gathering, storing and processing information, e.g. physical security measures to protect against unauthorized access to the systems.
- We have entered into data processing agreements with the suppliers who process personal data on our behalf and regularly carry out risk assessment and evaluation of them, including their level of security.
- We have conducted risk assessment and documentation of all systems that process personal data to ensure an informed basis for the level of security of the personal data processing, and we regularly review this.
- We restrict access to personal information to employees, subcontractors and representatives who need to know this information in order to process it for us. These individuals are subject to contractual confidentiality requirements and, if not complied with, may face sanctions or be fired.

Compliance and cooperation with regulators

We regularly review our own compliance with our Privacy policy. We also adhere to several self-regulatory security policies. When we receive formal written complaints, we contact the sender to follow up on the complaint. We cooperate with the relevant authorities, e.g. the Danish supervisory authority, to resolve complaints regarding the processing of personal data that we cannot resolve directly with our customers.

Our Privacy policy may change from time to time. Any changes to this Privacy policy are indicated on this page, and if significant changes occur, we will make them more noticeable (for some services we will, among other things, inform you about changes by email).
